COMPAREX SoftCare: License Management from the Professionals.

Procuring and efficiently managing software licenses is a tricky business. As the manager responsible in your company, it is likely that you are frequently confronted with questions such as: "Which license model best suits my needs?"; "Which provider offers the most competitive prices, and what are their most favorable purchasing terms?"; "Do I have enough – or maybe too many – software licenses to meet the needs of my company?" There is a seemingly endless list of aspects that require consideration in order to find the correct answer to these questions. For instance, it is necessary to look at the type of software use, its duration, and also any tax regulations that may apply to the global deployment of software in order to ensure it is used in the best possible way. Professional software license management by COMPAREX gives you ease of mind when faced with this complexity. Partnering with us will help you rise to the following challenges:
