

Microsoft licensing agreements comparison for commercial and government

Microsoft offers commitment-based and transactional options for organizations that want to purchase Microsoft cloud services, on-premises software, and/or Software Assurance through Microsoft-assisted, partner value-added or self-service web options. Compare the commercial and government Microsoft licensing agreements below or compare licensing options for academic.

Microsoft Enterprise Agreement and Microsoft Enterprise Subscription Agreement are commitment-based Microsoft Volume Licensing agreements for commercial organizations signing a new enrollment with 500 or more users/devices and government organizations with 250 or more users/devices that want to license Microsoft cloud services and/or on-premises software organization-wide, over a three-year period, and at the best available pricing. Enterprise enrollments include the Enterprise Enrollment, Enterprise Subscription Enrollment, and Server and Cloud Enrollment (SCE). Software Assurance is included.

The Microsoft Products and Services Agreement (MPSA) is a transactional Microsoft Volume Licensing agreement for commercial and government organizations with 250 or more users/devices that want to license Microsoft cloud services and/or on-premises software as needed—with no organization-wide commitment under a single, non-expiring agreement. Software Assurance is optional.

Microsoft Open License, Microsoft Open Value, and Microsoft Open Value Subscription are Microsoft Volume Licensing agreements for organizations with 5 to 499 users/devices that want to license Microsoft cloud services and/or on-premises software. Open License is a transactional agreement for commercial, government, academic, and nonprofit organizations; Software Assurance is optional. Open Value non-organization-wide is a transactional agreement for commercial and government organizations; Software Assurance is included. Open Value organization-wide and Open Value Subscription are commitment-based agreements for commercial and government organizations; Software Assurance is included.

The Microsoft Online Subscription Agreement is a transactional licensing agreement for commercial, government, and academic organizations with one or more users/devices that want to subscribe to, activate, provision, and maintain cloud services seamlessly and directly via the web, through the Microsoft Online Subscription Program. On-premises software and Software Assurance are not available through the Microsoft Online Subscription Agreement.
